

A gathering of ecumenically minded Christian peacemakers.

Peace Among the Peoples will be an opportunity to reflect on the future of the ecumenical peace movement in North America, and beyond.

In May 2011, the World Council of Churches will hold the International Ecumenical Peace Convocation in Kingston, Jamaica, culminating the 2001-2010 Decade to Overcome Violence (DOV) program. The objective of Peace Among the Peoples is to critically appropriate the agenda of the 2011 Convocation.

Today, there is a broad spectrum of Christian peacemaking activities in North America. A major task before us at the end of the Decade is to create a joint movement that will commit Christian peacemakers, and our churches, to future dialogue and common witness for peace.
